

TRI diagnostic construction and observable endpoints

One changed-winner transition, two opposite-gold commitments, one shared probe.

Key principle: Both pair members share identical states, selector, action, schema, and controller interface, and face the same opaque probe with the same inputs. They differ only in when commitment occurs, yielding opposite gold targets (A vs. B) for the same challenge.